

COPY of a LETTER found on Monday Morning the 28th. of Jan. 1788, in a Rail on the Milbrook foot path near the Dairy Gate.

lady ossery we mean to have a mak at your lord wen he comes home so i would have you send hem word as he may be redy for us on the rode and i hear it is to tudy and i be dand if i dunt se hem and we is well armed for him my name you must find if you can

to be left agan wer
lan gate

for lady Ossery Amphill Park to go by the first as Picks it up

COPY of a second LETTER found on Thursday Morning the 7th. of Feb. 1788, on the foot path by the Pales Side, near Ampthill Town's End.

lord osrey this is to let you no as i mean to have asmak at you i be dand if we ant well arm for you and i se you cum home that day and i was the man as set the stubbles fire i be dand if i want and i wull have the hose don now wen you are gon to town and i no wen you are going i can sho you five hundred any day and i have got nine good stanch men for you or the duke of Bedford and no wen he coms to woburn and i wul have a nok at him becuse he is a dand stingy fcl and so are you hear you never ask me to dinar with you in your life and her you ax all the dand Parsons about the cuntry and the ar the bigest Regs in the wold and i am a Gentleman and you never axt me to dine with you in your life i dont live meny miles from your hose and i be dand if your huse shant cum down wen you are Gon i dont tel you any lie be god and i be dand if i dunt give ihe duke or sm of my men shal and so m lord take kare un your self for i certainty set fire to your stables and the house was a axcident for me houver i no your wa h men and i have seen them very ofen but they never seen me and so my lord osrey i can say no more at this time but take care of your self that all ~~is~~ i am not a Parson a dand Reg

so here is my name

by the first as Picks it up
for
lord Osrey
Amphill Park